

Portland, Oregon the latest addition to Condor's 2015 Summer Schedule

Frankfurt am Main, 2 September 2014 – Another new destination on America's West Coast is being added to Condor's schedule in Summer 2015. Beginning June 19, 2015, the German carrier will be flying non-stop twice a week to Portland (PDX), Oregon. The flights will be operated by a Boeing 767-300 with departures from and to Frankfurt on Tuesdays and Fridays. Flights are now available for booking.

From natural wonders to culture and cuisine, the irresistibly green city of Portland is the essence of the Pacific Northwest. Home to both a sprawling urban wilderness, Portland offers visitor's a breath of fresh air. Away from the city, there are mountains, forests, and the Oregon coast – whether hiking, windsurfing, a trip to Mount Hood or the vineyards of Willamette Valley, all are within an easy 90-minute drive. Shopping is even more fun without taxes straining your travel budget.

In addition, Portland is an important hub of Alaska Airlines. Easy connections with Alaska Airlines increases the frequency to Seattle with Condor to six days a week. "Condor flies non-stop to Seattle on Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays," explains Jens Boyd, Head of Long-Haul at Condor. "Starting in Summer 2015, there will also be convenient connections between Portland and Seattle on Tuesdays and Fridays. With more than 20 Alaska Airlines flights a day, easy traveling with short waiting times is guaranteed."

Flights to Portland and beyond with Alaska Airlines connections such as Seattle, San Francisco and Los Angeles can be booked at http://bit.ly/Flights_to_Portland, or with a travel agent. One-way tickets, including taxes and fees, are available from €359.99 in Economy Class, €459.99 in Premium Economy Class, and from €999.99 in Business Class. German or most European destinations as well as Rail & Fly to Frankfurt are also offered. All information to Condor flights are available online at www.condor.com.

Thomas Cook Group and Brand USA, the destination marketing organization for the United States of America, recently announced an extension to their major cooperative marketing agreement aimed at promoting the USA as the world's leading destination for European visitors. The campaign will extend from its original markets of Germany, UK, Belgium and Netherlands to include France, Sweden, Austria and Switzerland. The partnership will see Thomas Cook and Brand USA embark on a high-profile, multi-media campaign promoting America's 'Great Outdoors' as well as Thomas Cook Airlines new US routes from Germany and the UK.

Condor Flugdienst GmbH has been flying its passengers to the world's most beautiful holiday destinations since 1956. On an annual basis, 7 million passengers fly with Condor to around 75 destinations in Europe, Asia, Africa and America. Since 2013, the German airline Condor, is part of the Thomas Cook Group Airlines to which the Thomas Cook Airlines UK, Thomas Cook Airlines Belgium and Thomas Cook Airlines Scandinavia also belong. The fleet of the airlines in the Thomas Cook Group comprises 88 modern and environmentally friendly aircraft, of which 40 aircraft are in the Condor fleet: 12 Airbus A320s, 3 Airbus A321, 13 Boeing 757-300s and 12 Boeing 767-300s. The aircraft are maintained by the airline's own technical operations. In a representative survey of Focus and Focus Money, called "Mit gutem Gewissen", Condor was elected the most environmentally sustained airline and received the sustainability prize in 2014. Condor is co-initiator of the four-litre-campaign of the federal association of German aviation (BDL): German aviation consumption of kerosine is less than 4 litres per passenger on 100 kilometres.
