Free Samples on Trays

As well as being served tasty meals, Condor passengers on medium- and longhaul flights also receive complimentary gifts such as cards or tins containing mints, post-it pads and mini-CDs. A great way to ensure your advertising message leaves a lasting impression.

Free gifts are handed personally to passengers from a tray.

Your advertising message will make a positive impression, and the small size of the free gifts makes them perfect for passengers to take with them once the flight is over.

Free Samples on Trays

- » Run 200,000
- » Price/Month from € 16,900
- » Distribution Medium- and longhaul routes
- » Delivery Date 2 weeks before distribution

* Price includes distribution costs.

Free Samples

Take the opportunity to share product samples with passengers on board. Passengers enjoy receiving small gifts during flights, and devote attention to your product and message.

Your product samples will be distributed personally by the Condor flight attendants – perhaps the most elegant way to reach potential new customers.

Distribution of Samples

- » Shorthaul Routes from € 8,900
(60.000/month)

General Terms and Conditions

Condor Ambient Media 2014/2015 – Valid from 1st October 2014

Subject to agreement to the contrary, orders for the publication of advertisements and other forms of advertising shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Conclusion of the contract

The object of the contract is the marketing of Ambient Media by Condor, as presented in Ambient Media 2014/2015. Offers by Condor are always subject to change. The contract shall be concluded solely by written confirmation by Condor with the confirmed content. The client may object to the order confirmation in writing within 24 hours of its receipt. The general terms and conditions of Condor apply. Application of general terms and conditions of the client is hereby expressly excluded unless Condor has expressly agreed to their application in writing. This shall also apply where Condor accepts an order without reservations, despite being aware of conflicting terms.

2. Orders from agencies

Orders from agencies may only be accepted where the agency is designated with its precise name (name, complete address). Agencies or advertising intermediaries shall receive an agency fee of 15% on the net order total if they can present proof of the corresponding services, i.e. on the net amount invoiced without VAT, after the deduction of discounts. If the value of an order and/or discount changes due to addition or cancellation, the agency fee will be calculated anew.

3. Processing timeframe

The respective term of the contract as agreed corresponds to the processing timeframe.

4. Cancellation of the order

Condor may grant the client the option of cancellation at its own discretion. The cancellation statement shall always be sent to Condor in writing, and must be received by Condor in good time (8 weeks before the first airing date for TV commercials, and for other advertising services generally before the final delivery date for printed documents). Cancellation shall only be effective if Condor expressly agrees to it in writing.

5. Rejection of advertising orders

Condor reserves the right to withdraw from a contract for implementation of an advertising campaign if it turns out that the advertising campaign violates any laws, official provisions or accepted moral principles, or if Condor cannot be expected to provide the media services for any other reasons, in particular possible damage to reputation. Rejection of an order shall be indicated to the client without undue delay. This shall not give rise to any payment obligation. Insofar as permissible by law, any further claims are hereby excluded. Any production or preparation costs that have already been incurred, as well as any claims for commission, shall be borne by the client. Costs for any significant changes to the originally agreed implementation that are desired by or due to the responsibility of the client shall also be assumed by him.

6. Media prices for Inflight Entertainment

The media price is the price incurred solely for airing of the commercial. It does not include production or other costs. If such costs arise, they shall be invoiced separately and shall always be borne by the client. The media prices according to the price list are based on the indicated length in seconds. If the actual length of the programme diverges from the agreed length, the actual length of the programme shall constitute the basis for invoicing, in which respect the changed length in seconds shall require Condor's consent. All media prices are generally exclusive of VAT.

General Terms and Conditions

7. Marking, documentation, complaints, placement, airing

Condor reserves the right to mark advertisements that are not recognisable as such due to their design with the word "advertisement". Documentation for the advertising media is only delivered on express request made before the start of the campaign. Any complaints – except where defects are not obvious – must be asserted within one month after receipt of the invoice. If timely airing of the commercial is not possible due to technical interference, force majeure or other causes for which Condor cannot be held responsible, the advertising spot airing time shall be rescheduled at short notice to another suitable alternative time. If there are any significant differences between the airing time booked and the actual airing time, the client shall be informed by Condor without undue delay.

8. Price changes

Condor points out that changes to the price list are possible at any time. Price changes concerning agreed and confirmed advertising orders shall, however, only be effective if they are announced by Condor at least four months before realisation. The period of four months shall not, however, apply if realisation is only possible after the end of the 4-month period for reasons for which the client can be held responsible. In the event of a price increase, the client has a right to withdraw from the contract. Such right to withdraw must be asserted towards Condor in writing within five working days after receipt of the notification.

9. Payment terms

The advertising orders placed shall be invoiced every month in advance. The invoices shall be drawn up exclusive of statutory VAT. Invoices shall be due for payment without deductions no later than five working days after receipt. Where new business relationships are established, Condor reserves the right to demand advance payments. The payments shall be made exclusively to the accounts indicated by Condor on the invoice. Bank expenses shall be borne by the client. In case of default on payments by the client, Condor shall be entitled to delay performance of the order without giving rise to any reimbursement claim on the part of the client. The client shall be liable for the default damage incurred according to the statutory provisions.

10. Advertising media delivery

The client agrees to submit the relevant advertising media – as indicated in Ambient Media – to Condor within the deadline, for the purpose of release. Apart from this, the client shall inform Condor in writing without undue delay if any circumstances arise or become recognisable indicating that the above period cannot be complied with. The client shall be responsible for timely delivery and proper print document delivery to Condor. The programme copies must comply with the quality required by Condor. For any other formats or insufficient transmission quality, Condor shall invoice the costs for transfer into the relevant format and the quality needed. For the advertising blocks within the video magazine and the advertising position before the main movie, the programme copies must be present as single copies eight weeks before airing. Receipt of the programme material by Condor shall be decisive for compliance with the deadlines indicated. The programme material shall be kept by the respective service provider in the name of Condor and returned to the client only upon request. If a motif for a commercial remains unused for more than one year, Condor shall be entitled to destroy any programme documents and the programme material provided for this purpose, without compensation. If programmes are not aired or are aired incorrectly because documents, texts or programme copies were not provided in time, were provided with defects or incorrectly labeled, the agreed airing time shall be invoiced. The client shall not have any claims for reimbursement in this case. The client bears the risk for the provision of programme documents and programme material. The client is obliged to provide the information required for settlement with GEMA along with submission of the programme copies, in particular information about the producer, publisher, composer, title and length of the advertising music. The client warrants that GEMA settlement has been or will be performed by him.

11. Quantity differences

Condor points out that the quantities of certain advertising carriers may vary due to divergences from the previously forecast passenger volumes. Any quantities remaining due to this may be distributed by Condor beyond the agreed final date of the campaign. The advertising carrier volumes are reference values. If the volume is not distributed completely within the advertising period, this shall not entitle the client to reduce the agreed fee.

12. Liability

Condor shall be liable without limitation in case of willful intent or gross negligence, as well as where any warranty has been assumed; this shall also apply in case of slightly negligent injury to life, limb or health. In case of a slightly negligent breach of material contractual obligations, liability shall be limited to any resulting property or financial damage in the amount of the foreseeable, typical damage. Where permissible by law, any further liability for damages is excluded, in particular for indirect damage and consequential damage, except for claims under the Product Liability Act. The client shall bear the sole responsibility for the content of the advertising message under media law, competition law and otherwise. The client shall indemnify Condor against any claims made by third parties, in particular claims under media, competition and copyright laws. The client shall be liable towards Condor for any damage resulting from the possible assertion of claims and shall indemnify Condor against any claims asserted by third parties in this respect.

13. Confidentiality

The client shall treat all information supplied to him by Condor and any special terms agreed on confidentially and shall only make them available to third parties where he has charged them with implementation of the advertising campaign and where such information needs to be passed on for execution of the order. In that case the client shall also impose a confidentiality obligation on the third party.

14. Final provisions

Amendments or supplements to the contract, including any ancillary agreements and amendments to these clauses, have to be in writing in order to be valid. Should individual provisions of these terms and conditions be or become invalid, this shall not affect the remaining parts of the contract.

The venue shall be Frankfurt am Main.

German law shall apply.
